

Headley Community Shop Newsletter June 2026

Trading in the latter part of April and into May saw a small improvement in customer visits and consequently takings. We thank all of those who responded to our appeal letter distributed in the second half of April whether by expressing support or more importantly buying more stuff from the shop. However, we need the same level of support to continue and not for it to be a five minute wonder.

One of the responses was from a customer in Brimpton who has regularly bought a weekly newspaper from us over many years. If there are any residents of Brimpton who would like a daily newspaper delivered, we can incorporate it into our existing extensive paper delivery round which already includes Ecchinswell, North Sydmonton, Adbury, Bishops Green and Crookham Common in addition to Headley and Ashford Hill. Brimpton village can easily be accommodated on the return via Ashford Hill. This newsletter appears on our website and is distributed digitally through the Parish Newsletter but if you know of any Brimpton residents who might benefit from this service, please pass this on.

From the start of June, we will have an arrangement with Play It Again records to display and sell their records in the Shop. They have outlets in Wantage and Wallingford and formerly had a presence in Newbury. If you are interested in vinyl records, come and view their stock.

With Summer weather, thoughts turn to holidays, barbecues and ice cream.

You will find sausages and burgers (including veggie ones) in our freezer.

Our Post Office can supply you with foreign exchange; currency ordered before 13.00 will be available for collection the next day. Euros and multi-currency cards are kept in stock. Buy back of Euros and US Dollar is also available (subject to conditions).

In addition to the Jude's range sold all year round, our dedicated freezer for ice cream has been brought back into action and here is a sample of what we sell.
