

Headley Community Shop Newsletter March 2026

The days are noticeably longer, the daffodils are in full bloom and we are in optimistic mood at the Shop. We need it after a disappointing start to the year with our footfall in the first two months 15% below where it was last year. Undoubtedly, weather has been a factor but the Shop and Post Office need your support to survive.

Mothering Sunday is on the 15th and we have cards and Summerdown chocolates to mark the event. We also have Prosecco supplied by Laithwaites. Their wines are proving popular, particularly their white wines; we currently have a range of five wines to suit various palates. Easter eggs are on sale too.

To emphasise a message in previous newsletters, we believe our prices are competitive when compared with other traders in the locality. Here a few examples of our prices compared with Tesco:-

	Headley Shop	Tesco
Lemsip	6.35	6.50
Calpol	4.99	5.60
Finish	3.49	5.50
Galaxy	1.69	2.25
Wagon Wheels	1.49	1.50
Pepsi Max	1.39	1.59
Lucozade	1.50	1.69
CIF spray	3.20	4.00

These are just representative items when we carried out a recent audit. Our prices may be lower because our stock was purchased when prices were lower but it illustrates the point that we endeavour to compete on price with our larger competitors and certainly with a number of the more local outlets. Of course, in addition you are assured of a warm welcome when visiting from Kerina and Sandra and our volunteers!

As previously offered, we will deliver orders over £20 in value, free of charge, within a five mile radius of the Shop. This includes all the places where we deliver newspapers currently. Orders can be placed by phone or email.

With the recent warmer weather, we have noticed greater demand for ice creams. Our Walls ice cream freezer will be brought back into the Shop shortly to display a wide variety of ice creams in addition to the Judes ice cream tubs available all year round. Check out the daily weather on our website, a new feature.

We will be holding another Quiz Night On Saturday 18 April in Headley Village Hall starting at 7.00 pm. Tickets will be available at the Shop shortly at £15 per head.
